MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

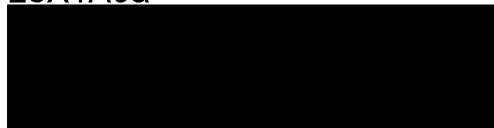

SUBJECT: E&E Indoctrination Course for Military Services, 21-23 May 1958

1. The purpose of this memorandum is to express the appreciation of the PP Staff for the outstanding coordination achieved between the Training Division and this Staff in effecting the subject training course.

2. The Office of Training obviously went to great effort to make this course all it was intended to be. As a result, it is believed there has been effected a sound basis from which to increase rapport, understanding and effective future coordination in the paramilitary field between the Military Services and the Agency.

3. This Staff is looking forward to further coordinated efforts of this nature.
